Anah Gate and Jawahar Burj and Ashtadhatu gateway inside Bharatpur Fort are under Central Protection while the remaining portions of the fort complex are under the State Government. The monuments under the protection of Central Government within the fort are in a good state. In regard to others, attention of the State Government has been drawn for necessary action.

Lack of amenities in Central Schools

4213. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH: Will the the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that most of the Central Schools in Delhi, particularly the R. K. Puram, Sector 8 School, are not well maintained and lack in the following essential amenities like furniture in class rooms, window glasses, inadequate drinking water facility, lavatories, sewage, garden, laboratories, sports items etc.;

(b) whether it is also a fact that a taxi-stand in the vicinity and parking of private buses spoil the academic atmosphere of the school; and

(c) if so, what steps Government propose to take for the proper functioning of the Central Schools and for the Welfare of the students?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) to (c) No Sir, Rs. 2,65,700 has been sanctioned especially for Kendriya Vidyalaya, R. K. Puram, Sector-8, New Delhi during 1991-92 for maintenance, etc. Furniture, sport material, laboratory equipments etc. are sanctioned yearly. In Urban conditions, it is difficult for the Sangathan to avoid traffic etc. problems outside the school premises.

National Library Employees' Association

4214. SHRI SAMAR MUKHERJEE: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the National Library Employees' Association, Calcutta vide their letter dated 15th February, 1992 have protested against the reported permission to a splinter association to represent in the Council of JCM which contravenes the Joint Consultative machinery rules; and

(b) if so, whether Government propose to take corrective steps to stop this irregularity?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The JCM rules permit more than one association/union to be represented in the Council. Keeping this in view, the Central Government has also recognised the National Library Staff Association which has sufficient membership strength to be eligible for representation in the Council. Hence the question of taking corrective steps by the Government does not arise.

Investigation of the Activities of the Employees of College Staff in Delhi

4215. SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR SAHU: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether there are any Conduct Rules for the Principal, Additional Principal, Vice-Principal, Special Principal and such other teaching staff of Ramjas College, Hindu College, D. A. V. College and Dayal Singh College and such other constituent colleges in the Union Territory of Delhi and whether they are treated as public servants like Central/State Government employees;

(b) whether their wrongful activities and violation of law Government rules and policies can be investigated by the

CBI, CVC and other Governmental Investigating Agencies like that of Government servants;

(c) if not, what is the procedure and practice of conducting investigation into the wrongful activities of such teaching staff in the public interest to ensure discipline among them; and

(d) whether CBI etc. could register cases against them and prosecute them under Criminal Procedure Code, Indian Penal Code etc.?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) to (d) According to the information furnished by the University of Delhi, the terms and conditions of service and conduct of teachers of Delhi Colleges, including Principals and Vice-Principals, are governed by Ordinance XII of the Ordinances of the University and the Agreement of Service for College teachers annexed thereto. These, inter-alia provide that with the prior approval of the Vice-Chancellor, the Governing Body of a College is entitled to terminate the services of a teacher for mis-conduct and for good cause after giving three months' notice in writing or payment of three months' salary in lieu of notice. However, before doing so the Governing Body shall inform the concerned teacher, in writing, of the ground on which such action is proposed to be taken and give him a reasonable opportunity of stating his case.

According to the information furnished by Ministry of Law, the teaching staff of Delhi Colleges is covered by the definition of 'Public Servant' for the purpose of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and are, therefore, liable to be prosecuted for offences committed under this Act. However, as the University has not yet accepted the jurisdiction of the CVC, the latter is not in a position to investigate complaints against teachers of Delhi Colleges.

Teachers of Delhi Colleges are subject to the laws of the land like other citizens of the country. Criminal offences committed by them can be investigated by the Police. CBI can also investigate cases in accordance with procedure laid down in this regard.
